ACADEMIC

Associate Professor (with tenure), since September 1, 2018

APPOINTMENTS

Department of Linguistics, New York University

Assistant Professor (tenure track), September 1, 2012 to August 31, 2018

Department of Linguistics, New York University

Postdoctoral researcher, 2010 – 2012

Tübinger Zentrum für Linguistik, University of Tübingen

Sponsors: Sigrid Beck, Gerhard Jäger

EDUCATION

Ph.D., Linguistics, December 2010

University of Pennsylvania

Advisor: Cleo Condoravdi (Palo Alto Research Center / Stanford University)

Committee chair: Aravind K. Joshi (University of Pennsylvania)

Thesis: “Parts of a whole: distributivity as a bridge between aspect and measurement”

Open access at <http://repository.upenn.edu/edissertations/958/>

Revised version published at OUP, <http://champollion.com/book-parts-of-a-whole/>

Exchange Scholar, 2009 – 2010

Stanford University, Department of Linguistics

Master of Science in Engineering, Computer and Information Science, 2007

University of Pennsylvania Advisor: Mitchell P. Marcus

Zwischenprüfung zum Magister (comparable to B.A.), 2003

Albert-Ludwigs-Universität Freiburg, Germany

Subjects: English, Computer Science, Computational Linguistics

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

2021-2022: Arts and Science Emerging Leaders Academy (ASELA) fellowship, a year-long program aimed at developing the leadership potential of faculty in NYU Arts and Science. ASELA fellows are chosen from across Arts & Science via a competitive application process.

Spring 2020: NYU inclusive teaching seminar (four-part workshop series)

GRANTS, AWARDS AND HONORS

- 2023: Humboldt Fellowship for experienced researchers, supporting a 15-month stay in Germany starting June 2024, at the Munich Center for Mathematical Philosophy, Ludwig-Maximilians-Universität.
- 2022: Teaching Innovation Award, New York University.
- 2022: Teaching Advancement Grant (TAG) award for continuing development of the Lambda Calculator, New York University.
- 2020: Curricular Development Challenge Fund (CDCF) award for continuing development of the Lambda Calculator, New York University.
- 2018: NYU College of Arts and Science (CAS) Golden Dozen Award, recognizing excellence in teaching and contributions to undergraduate education.
- 2014 (January), 2015 (January and November to December): Visitor, Institute for Logic, Language, and Computation, University of Amsterdam. Sponsor: Floris Roelofsen (via Netherlands Organization for Scientific Research (NWO) VENI grant “Interpreting questions: a fine-grained compositional semantics”)
- 2015: Grant-in-Aid in support of book publication, New York University.
- 2015: University Research Challenge Fund (URCF), New York University.
- 2014: Team-Teaching Stipend (with Jim Pryor), New York University.
- 2013: Curricular Development Challenge Fund (CDCF) award for continuing development of the Lambda Calculator, New York University.
- 2009 – 2010: Dissertation Completion Fellowship, University of Pennsylvania.
- 2007: NAACL/ACL Fellowship for the Linguistic Institute of the Linguistic Society of America.
- 2006 and 2007: University of Pennsylvania SAS technology grants for development of the Lambda Calculator (with Maribel Romero and Josh Tauberer).
- 2005: LSA Fellowship for the Linguistic Institute of the Linguistic Society of America.
- 2005 – 2009: Benjamin Franklin Fellowship, University of Pennsylvania.
- 2004: German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD) one-year exchange scholarship (University of Pennsylvania).
- 2004: Admission to the Studienstiftung des deutschen Volkes (German National Academic Foundation), Germany’s largest sponsor of intellectually outstanding students (admission rate in 2004: 0.7% of German student population).

CONFERENCE
PRESENTATIONS
ABSTRACTS)

Timothée Bernard and Lucas Champollion (2022). “Negation, events, modality, and truthmaker semantics”. Talk alternate and poster at the 32st conference on Semantics and Linguistic Theory (SALT), COLMEX/UNAM, June 8-10, 2022.

Anna Alsop and Lucas Champollion (2021). “A compositional account of Japanese ka in Inquisitive semantics”. Poster at the 31st conference on Semantics and Linguistic Theory (SALT), virtually at Brown University, May 7-9, 2021.

Lucas Champollion, Anna Alsop and Ioana Grosu (2019). “Free choice disjunction as a rational speech act”. Poster at the 29th conference on Semantics and Linguistic Theory (SALT). University of California, Los Angeles. May 17-19, 2019.

Timothée Bernard and Lucas Champollion (2018). “Negative events”. Poster at the 28th conference on Semantics and Linguistic Theory (SALT). Massachusetts Institute of Technology. Boston, Massachusetts. May 18-20, 2018.

Timothée Bernard and Lucas Champollion (2018). “Negation and distributivity in event semantics”. Talk at the Journées Co-distributivité 2018. CNRS Paris. February 22-23, 2018.

Masha Esipova and Lucas Champollion (2017). “Focus on adjuncts: a uniform event-based semantics of only”. Poster at the 48th annual meeting of the North East Linguistic Society (NELS). Reykjavik, Iceland. October 27-29, 2017.

Lucas Champollion, Justin Bledin and Haoze Li (2017). “Rigidity and distributivity in plural predicate logic.” Talk at the workshop on Quantifiers and Determiners (QUAD). Toulouse, France. July 17-21, 2017.

Lucas Champollion, Justin Bledin and Haoze Li (2017). “Rigidity and distributivity in plural predicate logic.” Poster at the 27th conference on Semantics and Linguistic Theory (SALT). College Park, Maryland. May 12-14, 2017.

Dylan Bumford, Lucas Champollion, and Linmin Zhang (2016). “The rabbit in the hat is back: Definites with joint uniqueness presuppositions.” Talk at the Workshop on Definiteness across Languages. June 22-24, 2016.

Lucas Champollion (2016). “Homogeneity in donkey sentences.” Talk at the 26th conference on Semantics and Linguistic Theory (SALT). Austin, Texas. May 12-15, 2016.

Lucas Champollion, Ivano Ciardelli and Linmin Zhang (2016). “Breaking de Morgan’s law in counterfactual antecedents.” Poster at the 26th conference on Semantics and Linguistic Theory (SALT). Austin, Texas. May 12-15, 2016.

Lucas Champollion (2015). “Linking the collective-distributive opposition and the telic-atelic opposition.” Talk at the 20th Amsterdam Colloquium. December 16-18, 2015.

Lucas Champollion (2015). “Linking the collective-distributive opposition and the telic-atelic opposition.” Poster at the 46th annual meeting of the North East Linguistic Society (NELS). Montréal, Canada. October 16-18, 2015.

Lucas Champollion (2015). “The weak/strong ambiguity in donkey sentences cannot be explained away”. Talk at the second annual Logic Group workshop (“Going Heim”), University of Connecticut, Storrs, May 2-3, 2015.

Lucas Champollion (2015), “Back to events: More on the logic of verbal modification.” Talk at the 38th Penn Linguistics Colloquium (PLC). University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia. March 30, 2014.

Lucas Champollion (2014), “Every boy bought two sausages each: Distributivity and dependent numerals.” Talk at the 32nd West Coast Conference on Formal Linguistics (WCCFL), University of Southern California, Los Angeles. March 7, 2014.

Lucas Champollion (2013). “The scope and processing of for-adverbials: A reply to Deo and Piñango.” Poster at the 23rd Conference on Semantics and Linguistic Theory (SALT). University of California, Santa Cruz, May 3-5, 2013.

Lucas Champollion (2013). “Man and woman: the last obstacle for boolean coordination.” Talk at the 19th Amsterdam Colloquium. December 18-20, 2013.

Lucas Champollion (2012). “Temporal dependencies: anaphora vs. movement.” Poster at the 35th Generative Linguistics in the Old World colloquium (GLOW). Potsdam, March 28-30, 2012.

Lucas Champollion (2011). “Each vs. jeweils: A cover-based view on distance-distributivity.” Talk at the 18th Amsterdam Colloquium. December 19-21, 2011.

Sveta Krasikova and Lucas Champollion (2011). “Two ‘many’ modifiers.” Talk at the Workshop on Modification With and Without Modifiers (MDF). Madrid, December 15-16, 2011.

Lucas Champollion (2011). “All.” Talk at the 2011 Philosophers’ Rally (Zlot Filozoficzny). June 24-26, 2011. Toruń, Poland.

Lucas Champollion (2011). “Distributivity and same.” Talk at the 12th Szklarska Poreba workshop, March 12, 2011, Szklarska Poreba, Poland.

Lucas Champollion (2010). “Quantification in event semantics.” Talk at the 6th International Symposium of Cognition, Logic and Communication. Formal Semantics and Pragmatics: Discourse, Context, and Models. November 19-21, 2010. Riga, Latvia.

Lucas Champollion (2010). “For-adverbials and the specified quantity generalization.” Talk at the 34th Penn Linguistics Colloquium. March 19-21, 2010, University of Pennsylvania.

Lucas Champollion (2009). “Cumulative readings of every do not provide evidence for events and thematic roles.” Talk at the 17th Amsterdam Colloquium. December 16-18, 2009.

Lucas Champollion (2009). “A unified account of distributivity, for-adverbials, and pseudopartitives.” Talk at the 14th Sinn und Bedeutung conference. September 28-30, 2009, Vienna, Austria.

Lucas Champollion and Uli Sauerland (2009). “An inverse linking account of nested definites.” Talk at the 14th Sinn und Bedeutung conference. September 28-30, 2009, Vienna, Austria.

Lucas Champollion and Uli Sauerland (2009), “Definiteness, inverse linking, and narrowing.” Talk at the 10th Semantics Fest. March 13-14, 2009, Stanford, California.

Lucas Champollion (2009). “For-adverbials quantify over subintervals, not subevents.” Talk at the CHRONOS 9 international conference on tense, aspect and modality, September 2-4, 2009. Paris, France.

Lucas Champollion (2008), “Binding theory in LTAG.” Ninth International Workshop on Tree Adjoining Grammar and related formalisms (TAG+9). June 7, 2008. Tübingen, Germany.

Lucas Champollion (2008), “The influence of goals on ambiguities in certain donkey sentences.” Talk at the Fourth Formal Semantics in Moscow workshop (FSIM 4). April 5-6, 2008. Moscow, Russia.

Lucas Champollion (2007), “Lexicalized non-local MCTAG with dominance links is NP-complete,” Talk at Mathematics of Language (MOL) 10, UCLA, July 28-30, 2007, Los Angeles, California.

Lucas Champollion (2006), “On the (ir)relevance of psycholinguistics for anaphora resolution.” Talk at the Workshop on Ambiguity in Anaphora, ESSLLI 2006, Málaga, Spain.

INVITED TALKS

Invited colloquium talk at Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Boston, October 2023. “The limits of possible world semantics.” (Based in part on joint work with Timothée Bernard)

Invited colloquium talk at University of Massachusetts Amherst, September 2023. “The limits of possible world semantics.” (Based in part on joint work with Timothée Bernard)

Invited talk at the Truthmaker Semantics Conference, Villa La Pietra, Florence, June 2023. “Exclusion in unilateral truthmaker semantics.” (Based in part on joint work with Timothée Bernard)

Invited talk (virtually) at Workshop on Part-whole structures in natural language, Masaryk University, Brno, May 2022. “Negative events and truthmaker semantics.” (Based in part on joint work with Timothée Bernard)

Invited talk (virtually) at Theoretical Linguistics at Keio Semantics Conference, Keio University, Tokyo, March 2022. “Negative events and truthmaker semantics.” (Based in part on joint work with Timothée Bernard)

Invited talk (virtually) at Humboldt University Berlin, in the series “The typology of cumulativity”, February 2022. “Negative events and truthmaker semantics.” (Based in part on joint work with Timothée Bernard)

Invited talk (5 minutes) at the third NYU Teaching Innovation Conference, March 2022.

Invited talk at the Abralin Aovivo online series, July 2020. “Donkeys under Discussion.” (Joint work with Dylan Bumford and Robert Henderson)

Invited talk (5 minutes) at the second NYU Teaching Innovation Conference, September 2020.

Invited colloquium talk at Harvard Linguistic Circle, November 2020. “A global intentions model of free choice disjunction.” (Joint work with Anna Alsop and Ioana Grosu)

Invited talk (keynote) at the 2019 Amsterdam Colloquium. “Donkeys under Discussion.” (Joint work with Dylan Bumford and Robert Henderson)

Invited talk in a seminar by Justin Bledin and Steven Gross at the philosophy department at Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, March 2019. “Two switches in the theory of counterfactuals.” (Joint work with Ivano Ciardelli and Linmin Zhang)

Invited talk at the Third Workshop on Inquisitiveness Below and Beyond the Sentence Boundary (InqBnB 3), Amsterdam, June 26-27, 2019. “A compositional account of Japanese ka in Inquisitive Semantics”. (Joint work with Anna Alsop)

Invited talk at Institut Jean Nicod, Ecole Normale Supérieure, Paris, January 2019. “Free Choice Disjunction as a Rational Speech Act.” (Joint work with Anna Alsop and Ioana Grosu)

Invited talk at the NYU College of Arts and Science (CAS) Scholars Lecture Series,

November 29, 2018. “The meaning of counterfactual sentences”. (Joint work with Ivano Ciardelli and Linmin Zhang)

Invited talk at the Heinrich-Heine-Universität Düsseldorf, Germany, July 12, 2018. “Two switches in the theory of counterfactuals: A study of truth conditionality and minimal change”. (Joint work with Ivano Ciardelli and Linmin Zhang)

Invited talk at the Georg-August-Universität Göttingen, Germany, July 11, 2018. “Donkeys under Discussion”. (Joint work with Dylan Bumford and Robert Henderson)

Invited talk at the Ruhr Universität Bochum, Germany, July 10, 2018. “Donkeys without borders”. (Joint work with Dylan Bumford and Robert Henderson)

Invited colloquium talk at Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Boston, February 16, 2018. “Two switches in the theory of counterfactuals: A study of truth conditionality and minimal change”. (Joint work with Ivano Ciardelli and Linmin Zhang)

Invited talk at the Second Workshop on Inquisitiveness Below and Beyond the Sentence Boundary (InqBnB 2), Amsterdam, December 18-19, 2017. “On questions and presuppositions in typed inquisitive semantics”. (Joint work with Ivano Ciardelli and Floris Roelofsen)

Invited talk at the Workshop on Logic and Algorithms in Computational Linguistics 2017 (a part of the events in the Logic in Stockholm 2017 conference), Stockholm, Sweden, August 2017. “Two switches in the theory of counterfactuals: A study of truth conditionality and minimal change”. (Joint work with Ivano Ciardelli and Linmin Zhang)

Invited talk at the 2017 Annual Meeting of the Canadian Philosophical Association, Toronto, Canada, May 2017. “Two switches in the theory of counterfactuals: A study of truth conditionality and minimal change”. (Joint work with Ivano Ciardelli and Linmin Zhang)

Invited talk at the 53rd Annual Meeting of the Chicago Linguistic Society, May 2017. “Stratified reference: a unified perspective on distributivity across constructions and languages.”

Invited colloquium talk at the University of Delaware, April 2017. “Homogeneity in donkey anaphora.” (Joint work with Dylan Bumford and Robert Henderson)

Invited talk at the 2017 Workshop on (Co-)Distributivity, CNRS Paris, February 2017. “Stratified reference: a unified perspective on distributivity across constructions and languages.”

Invited talk at the New York Philosophy of Language Workshop, February 2017. “Two switches in the theory of counterfactuals: A study of truth conditionality and minimal change”. (Joint work with Ivano Ciardelli and Linmin Zhang)

Invited talk at the Workshop on Conjunction, University of Vienna, December 2016. “The two senses of and in the coordination of nouns.”

Invited colloquium talk at Montclair State University, November 2016. “The interaction of compositional semantics and event semantics.”

Invited colloquium talk at Harvard University, November 2016. “Two switches in the theory of counterfactuals: A study of truth conditionality and minimal change.” (Joint work with Ivano Ciardelli and Linmin Zhang)

Invited talk at the 8th International Workshop on Constraints and Language Processing (CSLP 2016). A workshop affiliated with ICLP: International Conference of Logic Programming 2016, New York, US. October 2016. “Why you can’t order 50°F of beer and other puzzles.”

Invited talk at the Fourth Workshop on Natural Language and Computer Science (NLCS). New York, US. July 2016. “Antecedents of counterfactuals violate de Morgan’s law.” (Joint work with Ivano Ciardelli and Linmin Zhang)

Invited talk at the 2016 Workshop on Tightening the Articulation between Language and Number. Lorentz Center, Leiden, Netherlands, March 2016. “Talking about quantity and number” (with Manfred Krifka). Sponsors: Pierre Pica and Johan Rooryck

Invited colloquium talk at Göttingen University, November 2015. “Antecedents of counterfactuals violate de Morgan’s law.” (Joint work with Ivano Ciardelli and Linmin Zhang)

Invited talk at Utrecht University (LUSH series), November 2015. “Antecedents of counterfactuals violate de Morgan’s law.” (Joint work with Ivano Ciardelli and Linmin Zhang)

Invited talk at Institut Jean Nicod, Ecole Normale Supérieure, Paris, November 2015. “Antecedents of counterfactuals violate de Morgan’s law.” (Joint work with Ivano Ciardelli and Linmin Zhang)

Invited talk at the reading group, Yale, October 2015. “The interaction of compositional semantics and event semantics.”

Invited talk at the Munich Center for Mathematical Philosophy, January 2015. “The common core of distributivity, aspect, and measurement”.

Invited talk at Université Paris 7, December 2014. “The common core of distributivity, aspect, and measurement.”

Invited talk at the 4th Cornell Workshop in Linguistics and Philosophy, November 2014. “Each vs. all: Distributivity, cumulativity, and two types of collectivity.”

Invited talk at the UConn Logic Group, October 2014. “The common core of distributivity, aspect, and measurement.”

Invited talk at MACSIM 4 roundtable, October 2014. “The making of stratified reference.”

Invited talk at Stony Brook University, September 2014. “Putting events into your trees.”

Invited talk at the BRIDGES trans-continental workshop on inter-theoretic relations in mathematical philosophy. German consulate, New York, September 2014. “Compositional semantics and event semantics: a case study in inter-theoretic relations.”

Invited talk at University of Amsterdam, ILLC, January 2014. “Man and woman: the last obstacle for boolean coordination.”

Invited talk at the New York Philosophy of Language Workshop, November 2013. “Existential/universal ambiguities in donkey sentences and beyond.”

Invited colloquium talk at University of Maryland, February 2013. “The common core of distributivity, aspect, and measurement.”

Invited talk at Yale University, October 2012. “The common core of distributivity, aspect, and measurement.”

Invited colloquium talk at the University of Potsdam, May 2012. “Each vs. jeweils: A cover-based view of distance distributivity.”

Invited colloquium talk at the University of Frankfurt, April 2012. “The common core of distributivity, aspect, and measurement.”

Invited talk at ILLC, University of Amsterdam, November 2011. “The common core of distributivity, aspect, and measurement.”

Invited talk at Utrecht University, November 2011. “The common core of distributivity, aspect, and measurement.”

Invited talk at the workshop in honor of Arnim von Stechow, University of Konstanz, November 2011. “Temporal prepositional phrases and implicit variables.”

Invited talk at the workshop “Indefinites and beyond”, University of Göttingen, November 2011. “For-adverbials and the scope of indefinites.”

Invited talk at the workshop on aspect and modality in lexical semantics, University of Stuttgart, September 2011. “The scope of for-adverbials: A reply to Deo and Piñango.”

Invited talk at the workshop on quantification, University of Stuttgart, July 2011. “A strata-theoretic view on distance-distributivity.”

Invited talk at University of Konstanz, June 2011. “The common core of distributivity, aspect, and measurement.”

Invited talk at New York University, February 2011. “The common core of distributivity, aspect, and measurement.”

Invited talk at University of California Los Angeles, February 2011. “The common core of distributivity, aspect, and measurement.”

Invited talk at INFL/TCD Workshop on Natural Language Metaphysics, Trinity College, Dublin, April 2011. “The common core of distributivity, aspect, and measurement.”

Invited talk at the ArgDiap 7 conference, CSWU, Warsaw, June 2011. “Unifying aspect, measurement, distributivity and cumulativity.”

Invited talk at ZAS Berlin, May 2010. “The common core of distributivity, aspect, and measurement.”

Invited talk at the Workshop on Language, Communication and Rational Agency, Stanford, May 30-31, 2009. “Davidsonian events and thematic roles: are they necessary? A reply to Kratzer and Schein.”

Invited talk at the Stanford University linguistics department, April 2009. “A unified account of nominal distributivity, for-adverbials, and measure phrases.”

TEACHING EXPERIENCE – GRADUATE

Fall 2012, Fall 2013, Fall 2019, Fall 2020, Fall 2021: Semantics I (introduction to semantics) (in Fall 2012, co-taught with Chris Barker, NYU Linguistics; in Fall 2020, co-taught with Karen Lewis, Columbia University).

Syllabus: <http://tinyurl.com/semIsyllabus>

Spring 2015, Spring 2018, Spring 2019, Spring 2023: Semantics II.

Syllabus: <http://tinyurl.com/semIIsyllabus>

Fall 2018: Seminar in Semantics: RSA model/Mereology. Syllabus: <http://tinyurl.com/rsamereology>

Fall 2017: Seminar in Semantics / Experimental semantics and pragmatics (co-developed and co-taught with Ailís Cournane, NYU Linguistics).

Syllabus: <http://tinyurl.com/expsemprag>

Spring 2017: Seminar in Semantics / Inquisitive semantics and counterfactuals.

Syllabus: <http://tinyurl.com/counterfactuals>

Fall 2016: Semantics III.

Syllabus: <http://tinyurl.com/semIIIsyllabus>

Spring 2016: Seminar in Semantics / The interaction of compositional semantics and event semantics.

2011-2012: Invited mini-lecture series taught at University of Göttingen, University of Tübingen, Philosophy Institute of the University of Warsaw. “Linguistic applications of mereology.”

TEACHING EXPERIENCE – Summer 2022: Language and Computers. Syllabus: <http://tinyurl.com/language-and-computers>

UNDERGRADUATE Spring 2013, Fall 2013, Spring 2014, Spring 2015, Spring 2016, Spring 2017, Spring 2019, Spring 2021, Spring 2022: Language (introduction to linguistics).
Course site: <http://champollion.com/language>

Fall 2014, Spring 2018, Fall 2019, Fall 2020, Fall 2021: Patterns in Language (introduction to natural language processing) Co-developed and co-taught (in 2014) with Prof. Frans Adriaans (NYU).

Course site: <http://champollion.com/patterns>

Fall 2017, Fall 2018: Introduction to semantics. Course materials co-developed with Maria Esipova (NYU linguistics).

Course site: <http://wp.nyu.edu/introsem/>

Fall 2016: Formal languages (introduction to formal language theory). Co-developed and co-taught with Prof. Jim Pryor (NYU philosophy department).

TEACHING EXPERIENCE – SUMMER SCHOOLS 2022: Developed course materials for course at European Summer School in Logic, Language and Information (ESSLLI). “Negative events and truthmaker semantics.”
This course was on the topic of the present application. For personal reasons I was unable to attend this summer school, so a colleague took over for the actual teaching.

July 2021: Course taught at European Summer School in Logic, Language and Information (ESSLLI), held virtually. “Advanced mereology for linguists.”

https://esslli2021.unibz.it/page/course/advanced_mereology_for_linguists/

June 2018: Course taught at North American Summer School for Logic, Language and Information (NASSLLI), Carnegie Mellon University, Pittsburgh (USA). “Integrating compositional semantics and event semantics.” Co-taught with Masha Esipova. <https://www.cmu.edu/nasslli2018/courses/index.html#compsem>

July 2017: Course taught at European Summer School in Logic, Language and Information (ESSLLI), Toulouse (France). “Linguistic applications of mereology.”

<https://www.irit.fr/esslli2017/courses/4>

July 2015: Course taught at the Linguistic Society of America 2015 Linguistic Summer Institute, Chicago. “Linguistic applications of mereology.”

August 2014: Course taught at European Summer School in Logic, Language and Information (ESSLLI), Tübingen (Germany). “Integrating Montague semantics and event semantics.”

June 2014: Course taught at North American Summer School for Logic, Language and Information (NASSLLI), University of Maryland (USA). “Integrating Montague semantics and event semantics.” <http://www.nasslli2014.com/courses/montague/>

August 2012: Course taught at European Summer School in Logic, Language and Information (ESSLLI), Opole (Poland). “Linguistic applications of mereology.” <http://esslli2012.pl/index.php?id=112>
